

Bobette Reeder

Bobette Reeder has been a professional Coach since 1995 and is among the first twenty Coaches in the world to receive the distinction of ICF Master Certified Coach. She also holds a Master's Degree in Communications Disorders. Bobette received her coach-specific training at Coach U, where she has been a senior trainer. She is a Certified Mentor Coach and Coach U Certified Master Coach. Her wide range of clientele has included top corporate executives; CEOs; senior Coaches; "newbies;" members of the clergy; a tennis pro in the Netherlands-Antilles; the National Motorcycle Racing champion of Spain; small business owners; corporate refugees; and more! Bobette's coaching voice has been heard by hundreds of clients across the United States and around the world.

Bobette's experience serving the International Coach Federation has also been extensive and varied. She was the first ICF Outreach Coordinator; has served in nearly every ICF officer position; and was the Global ICF President, leading ICF Coaches worldwide.

Bobette is also active as a Partner with Serendipitous Events. She is Co-founder and Co-producer of Conversation Among Masters (CAM), the first invitation-only event for Master-level Coaches; and CAMalot, a unique event for high-level interaction and creation among the world's top Coaches.

Bobette is most proud of co-founding The Coach Initiative, a non-profit organization providing pro-bono Coaching to leaders of other non-profit groups. The Coach Initiative offers coaching support in order to exponentially expand the positive global impact of projects that focus on the betterment of the human condition and on uplifting the human spirit.

In addition to her professional leadership positions, Bobette has been President of Miami Children's Hospital Foundation Community Council and served on the Board of the Greater Miami Wellness Community, a support facility for cancer patients. Her personal and professional style is all about making a positive impact while having fun and seeking the opportunity in everything life brings. Bobette has been married for 49 years (Yes!...happily and to the same wonderful man!). She has two married children, five magical grandbabies, and her beloved Murphy the (rescued) Wonder Dog!

"I LOVE my life and I LOVE what I do!"